Making Bread/Planting Bulbs

Kate Ruttle/Kate Ruttle

Key text features

The texts both have a brief introduction followed by an instructional text.

- The Teaching text is Making Bread.
- The Practice text is Planting Bulbs.

Reading the Teaching text: Making Bread

- Introduce the text by asking what the children know about bread. Do they know how it is made? Have they watched someone making bread? What kinds of bread do they like eating?
- Talk about the title of the text. What do they think it will be about?

Reading the Practice Text: Planting Bulbs

- Have any of the class got a garden? Have they seen bulbs? If not, show them some pictures from the internet. Have they watched someone planting bulbs or helped to plant bulbs?
- Show the children pictures of spring flowers that come from bulbs. Do the children know the names of any of these flowers? (E.g. daffodils, tulips, irises, crocuses, snowdrops, bluebells.)
- Once they have read the text, remind the children that they are now going to work independently to practise the strategies introduced during the teaching session.

Moving into writing

- Introduce another simple cooking task. Take photographs of the children following the instructions.
- As a class, sequence the photographs to show the order of events.
- Ask the children to talk to a response partner: one child should give the other instructions (following the sequence of the photographs) while the other one mimes following the instructions exactly.
- Ask the children to write the instructions they needed to give and to follow.

Listening Comprehension: Questions and Answers

Q1: What is the first piece of information you are given in this text?

A1: People all over the world make some form of bread.

Strategy: Listen carefully to the opening of the text and think about what 'information' means.

Q2: What does the word "ingredients" mean?

A2: The things you need to use to make the bread.

Strategy: Listen to the whole text, listening out for every time you hear the word "ingredients". Think about the information you are given immediately after you first hear the word.

Q3: What is the first instruction you are given?

A3: Measure out all the ingredients into a large bowl.

Strategy: Think about everything you know about instructions. What makes instructions different from other kinds of sentences? Listen to the whole text again, thinking about instructions.

Planting Bulbs

- 1 Have you ever noticed the bright colours of spring flowers? Most of them are grown from bulbs, which contain the food that the flower needs to grow. If you want your flowers to appear in the spring, you will need to plant your bulbs in the autumn, either in the garden or in a pot.
- 6 How to plant a bulb:
 - 7 1. Dig a hole that is three to four times as deep as the bulb.
 - 8 2. Plant most bulbs with the round bit facing down and the pointy bit facing up. If you're not sure which is which, plant the bulb on its side. The roots will grow down and the bud will sprout up.
 - 12 3. If you're growing bulbs in a garden, mark the spot where you have planted the bulb. Write the name of the flower on a lollipop stick and push it into the ground above the bulb.
 - 15 4. Wait and watch.
 - 16 5. Once the bulbs have finished flowering, leave the leaves until they begin to turn yellow. This lets the bulb make the food it needs to flower again next year.
