World Book Day

The school's World Book Day celebration was great fun today! The children looked amazing in their impressive array of costumes, each one showcasing a beloved book. They had a chance to meet a children's author and engage in writing workshops. They also enjoyed a delicious World

Book Day-inspired lunch menu. A big thank you to all who contributed to such a fantastic and unforgettable day.

Y5/Y6 Visit to The Philharmonic Hall

To celebrate the forthcoming 2024 Paris Olympics, our Year 5 and 6 pupils had the incredible opportunity to attend the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra's annual schools' concert titled 'Going for Gold: The Orchestral Olympics'. Through a fantastic musical performance, they delved into the rich history of the Olympic Games, highlighted various present-day Olympic sports, and celebrated the achievements of inspiring athletes. Well done to the children who were excellent ambassadors for our school.
