

Punctuate these sentences from 'Poles Apart.'

You will need to add:

- Capital letters (don't forget names of people and places)
- Full stops
- Question marks (if a question is posed)
- Exclamation marks (where you think they would work)

- as everyone knows, penguins are found at the south pole
-----
-----
- the pilchard browns got lost on their way to a picnic
-----
-----
- mr pilchard brown told everyone to turn right at the snowman.
which was wrong
-----
-----
- is it a lion                      is it a tiger                      is it a picnic blanket
-----
-----
- what are you doing here
-----
-----

Now write three of your own sentences based on the story. Try to use all of the punctuation that you feel confident with.

6. -----

-----

7. -----

-----

8. -----

-----

Challenge – can you add commas to the list of adjectives?

they were drifting towards an enormous furry white ...something

-----

-----

-----

Answers

1. As everyone knows, penguins are found at the South Pole.
2. The Pilchard Browns got lost on their way to a picnic. (or !)
3. Mr Pilchard Brown told everyone to turn right at the snowman.
Which was wrong. (or !)
4. Is it a lion?                      Is it a tiger?                      Is it a picnic blanket?
5. What are you doing here?

Challenge

They were drifting towards an enormous, furry, white ...something.