Year 2 Summer Term 1

Draw four lines to name the types of sentences

You have some beautiful daffodils.

question Which flowers are you planting next? exclamation

What lovely daffodils statement you've planted here!

Circle the correct homophone for

Be careful with the flowers!

Underline the adjectives and circle the verbs in this sentence:

He wrote down the names of all the lovely, friendly people he had raced with that day.

d

Change this word into an adjective by adding the suffix

> shiny tall lazy

Remember, you may need to make changes.

-er or -est.

Write the correct spellings:

command

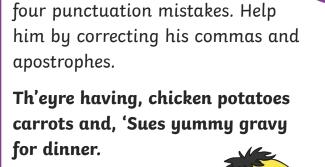

hole / whole

each picture.

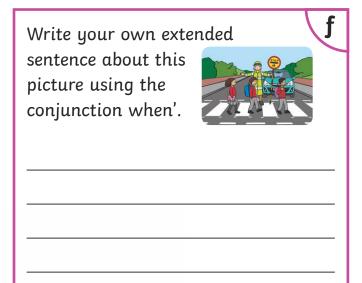

hole / whole

Oops, Mr Whoops has made

Draw four lines to name the types of sentences

You have some beautiful daffodils.

Which flowers are you planting next?

What lovely daffodils statement you've planted here!

Be careful with the flowers!

Underline the adjectives and circle the verbs in this sentence:

He wrote down the names of all the lovely, friendly people he had raced with that day.

Oops, Mr Whoops has made four punctuation mistakes. Help him by correcting his commas and apostrophes.

They're having chicken, potatoes, carrots and Sue's yummy gravy for dinner.

Circle the correct homophone for each picture.

(hole) whole

hole (whole

Write the correct spellings:

sew

SO

Change this word into an adjective by adding the suffix -er or -est.

shiny tall lazy

d

Remember, you may need to make changes.

shinier or shiniest taller or tallest

lazier or laziest

Write your own extended sentence about this picture using the conjunction when'.

Answers will vary.

The extended sentence must relate to the picture, include 'when' and make sense.

